

MANY PREMIUMS FOR FANCY BIRDS

Valuable Prizes Offered in Connection With Association Show to Be Held in Moline.

OVER ONE THOUSAND IN EXHIBIT

One Hundred in Cash to Be Awarded Those Winning Largest Number of Points.

Premiums of considerable value are offered by the Mississippi Valley Poultry association in connection with the annual poultry show which opens next week in Turner hall, Moline. Indications now are that 1,200 birds will be entered. Officials of the association are confident that the show will be well deserving of public patronage and a large attendance during the week is expected. The premium list:

The association offers $100 cash, to be awarded to the exhibitor winning the largest number of points, according to American Poultry association rule No. 27, divided as follows, provided there are 10 or more entries in each class, each exhibitor to compete with only one variety in a class.
